6. OLD BUSINESS:

a. ADA videotaping/discussion:

The members spent a half hour prior to meeting today, participating in a video recording outdoors of various incorrect things that are done with handicap spaces as well as a half hour indoor session with a recorded question and answer session. Mr. Moore said the only thing they did not do was to write a ticket as the officer who was going to demonstrate that, had gotten busy. He said it could be done at a later date and then added to the video.

The members felt it went very well and are looking forward to reviewing the video at the next regular meeting.

b. Bench Purchase:

Mrs. Dockery was ill and unable to be at this meeting so this discussion was postponed until the September meeting.

7. NEW BUSINESS:

a. Open discussion:

Mr. Moore said that Part II could be recorded at a later date.

He also mentioned that Spooktacular was coming up in October. The Dockerys agreed to help.

Mr. Moore added that Dale Baker will become the Interim City Manager after Dave Denny leaves on September 2nd.

8. DIRECTOR COMMENTS:

Mr. Moore said they had covered a lot at both video-taping sessions and had no further comments. He thanked everyone for their time today to do the videotaping both inside and outside.

9. COMMITTEE COMMENTS:

The members jointly agreed that the video-taping session went well.

Mrs. Beauregard said that National Night Out went very well. Miss Denizac agreed.

Mr. Dockery said staff did a great job and he complimented Miguel Perez.

10. NEXT MEETING DATE:

The next meeting is scheduled for its regular day on September 18, 2014.
